Report of the Workshop on "Importance of Intellectual Property Rights (IPRs)" 20-08-2022.

The Research Development Cell organized a workshop on the theme, 'Importance of Intellectual Property Rights' on August 20, 2018 in Lecture Hall 7. This workshop was organized to disseminate full-length information about intellectual property rights and their significance to the students. The programme was coordinated by Dr. Venkatappa Naik and chaired by the Principal Shri. Satyanarayan.

The program got underway at 10:00 a.m. with the welcome address and introduction by, Research Development Cell, Coordinator. It was followed by the formal inauguration of the workshop. Dr. Rajeshwari, Assistance Professor of Kannada, gave the opening remarks about the workshop.

The resource person, Sri Mallikarjunayya, an advocate, gave a profound insight into the significance of intellectual property rights. He pointed out that legal rights provide protection to creators for their original works, inventions, products, artistic works, scientific developments, etc. He also focused on how IPR increases the incentives for individuals to continue to produce things that further create job opportunities and new technologies while enabling our world to improve and evolve even faster. Carrying the significance of IPR further, he said that many companies rely on the enforcement of their patents, trademarks and copyrights, while consumers can also be assured of quality when purchasing IP-hacked products. IPR, he said, if utilized wisely, can maximize the benefit and value of an invention and enable world changing technology to be developed, protected, and monetized.

The workshop consisted of two sessions with a small high tea break between them. The valedictory function was followed soon after the second session. There were 45 participants registered for the workshop from various universities, institutes, and colleges. The program was wrapped up at 3:00 p.m. after a vote of thanks proposed by Shri. Sanjaya, Assistant Professor of Commerce.
