Introduction

The Indian Red Cross Society (IRCS) was established in 1920 under the Indian Red Cross Society Act: The Indian Red Cross Society Act was passed in 1920, and the society was formally constituted in June of that year. Sir William Malcolm Hailey was elected as the first chairman of the society. The IRCS is a member of the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement (ICRC), the world's largest independent humanitarian organization.

Vision

To improve the lives of vulnerable people in India and around the world by mobilizing the power of humanity

Mission

To reduce and prevent human suffering, and to create a more peaceful environment by inspiring and encouraging humanitarian activities

Aims & Objectives

1. Reduce human suffering
2. Promote humanitarian values
3. Improve lives of vulnerable people
4. Mobilize local resources

Karnataka State Branch

The Karnataka State Branch of the Indian Red Cross Society (IRCS) was established in 1921. The IRCS was established in 1920 under the Indian Red Cross Society Act, which was passed by the Indian Legislative Council on March 17, 1920. The IRCS is a voluntary humanitarian organization that aims to reduce and prevent human suffering and promote peace.

Here are some of the activities of the Karnataka State Branch of the IRCS:

- Blood bank: The IRCS has a 24/7 blood bank that collects blood from individuals, industries, educational institutions, and corporate offices. The blood bank uses a VITROS 3600 machine to test blood for HIV, Hepatitis B, Hepatitis C, Malaria, and Syphilis.
- TB Control Project: A project funded by USAID and UK aid.
- Urban Family Welfare Centre: A center that cares for mothers and children.
- Red Cross Optical: An optical unit that sells low-cost optics.
- Youth Red Cross: A group movement for students in colleges.
